Appl. No. 10/070,342
Amdt. dated 3 July 2003
Reply to Office action of 7-Apr-03

AMENDMENT and RESPONSE

In response to the Patent Office examiner's Office Action mailed 07 April 2003, please amend the above-captioned case as follows. The undersigned encourages the examiner to call at a time convenient to the examiner in the event it is believed that a conversation might aid moving prosecution forward. This amendment has been formatted in the revised format pursuant to published notification by the Patent Office signed by Commissioner Godici on 20-Feb-03, as best as can be understood using the SAMPLE FORMAT (Rev. 2/03) accessed at www.uspto.gov.

Amendments to the Specification reflecting the examiner's suggestions to make minor editorial modifications begin on page 3 of this correspondence; on page 4 of this correspondence is the ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE filed with applicant's PCT international application PCT/US00/23874, and included herewith per request by the examiner.

Amendments to the Claims included as a listing of claims reflecting the examiner's suggestions to make minor clarification modifications, and the examiner's recommendation to place the allowed claims 8 – 11 in independent form, begins on page 5 of this correspondence.

No amendments to the drawings are deemed necessary, please see Remarks addressing the examiner's objection to the drawings.

Remarks/Arguments begin on page 9 of this correspondence.

I spoke with one of the primarys here and he said he's never used (interpreted as the USPTO does not accept) E-signatures. So, I think I'll need you to send another fax. I'm sorry.

Aaron

Examiner Roane,

No problem, will do if you need it.

I'd faxed it directly from my computer -- since it is so long -- and the signature is the E-signature style suggested for TM office actions:

i.e., just above the Macheledt Bales LLP it says: /jean macheledt/

Let me know,

Jean
